

How We Create Impact

This is Holdsworth's 'Theory of Change' which shows how we respond to issues in our community and create positive impact.

OPPORTUNITY

Within our community, there are groups of people who face barriers accessing the support they need to remain living independently at home and/or remain active participants in the community.

WHO WE SUPPORT

Across community in South-East and Central Sydney:

At Holdsworth Street:

Older People

Those who need support to stay living at home and/or build relationships in the community.

People living with a disability

Those who need assistance building skills, social and support networks.

Families with children under school age

Those looking for support and/or to build relationships in the community.

WHAT WE DO

Help to find available services

Helping people navigate the funding and service system

Essential services for individuals

Essential supports to meet daily needs

Services connecting individuals with their community

Support to engage community members with the broader community

Social Groups

Targeted social groups to support social connection

People can:

- Better understand the funding system and what supports are available to them and their families
- Access funded supports
- Achieve their goals

People can:

- Access essential services that maintain or improve their physical and mental wellbeing
- Achieve more independence
- Feel less alone
- Stay living at home for longer

People can:

- Be more connected to their local community
- Build and grow relationships with others
- Feel valued

People can:

- Build and maintain skills (cognitive, social or physical)
- Build lasting friendships
- Have an improved quality of life

OUR IMPACT

Community members can exercise their choice to live and participate in their community, increasing their independence and the quality of their lives.
