

GENERAL RESOURCES

Forward With Dementia

A guide to living with dementia created by people living with dementia including information for individuals, carers and health professionals

Dementia Australia provides a variety of services and support for people living with dementia, their carers, families and loved ones also under the National Dementia Support Program funding from the Australian government.

This means they are free and includes:

A National Helpline
1800 100 500

Events calendar with upcoming dementia friendly events

Free psychological support services and counselling

Assistance planning for the future, find services, support and peers

Living well with dementia program

A national library